

TJR'S TWO-EVILS ENDORSEMENTS

IDIOSYNCRATIC,
WELL-RESEARCHED
NOVEMBER 6, 2018
ENDORSEMENTS

for IDEALISTS,
SKEPTICS, & FREAKS!

“I DO THE RESEARCH SO YOU DON'T HAVE TO!”

VOTE
THEIR CHOICE IS YOURS

DON'T VOTE
if the choice is theirs

RESIST!
OR YOU
HAVE NO
CHOICE

TJR'S TWO-EVILS ENDORSEMENTS

California

PROPOSITIONS

- 01 : YES
- 02 : YES
- 03 : NO Congratulations Cali, we get to vote on time itself!
- 04 : NO
- 05 : NO
- 06 : NO
- 07 : YES RENT CONTROL RULES!
- 08 : YES
- 10 : HUGE YES Most disingenuous measure award!
- 11 : NO
- 12 : YES

STATEWIDE CANDIDATES

US SENATE

✓ Kevin de León

LIEUTENANT GOVERNOR

✓ Ed Hernandez

SUPERINTENDENT OF PUBLIC INSTRUCTION

✓ Tony Thurmond

INSURANCE COMMISSIONER

✓ Ricardo Lara

CALIFORNIA JUDGES

SUPREME COURT

Carol Corrigan : NO

Leondra R. Kruger : YES

COURT OF APPEALS

- Victoria Chaney – NO
- Helen Bendix – SURE
- Elwood Lui – NO
- Victoria Chavez – NO
- Halim Dhanidina – YES
- Anne H. Egerton – SURE
- Luis A. Lavin – SURE
- Thomas Willhite – NO
- Nora M. Manella – SURE
- Lamar W. Baker – YES
- Dorothy C. Kim – SURE
- Carl H. Moor – SURE
- Arthur Gilbert – SURE
- Martin J. Tangeman – SURE
- Gail R. Feuer – YES
- John L. Segal – YES
- Trisha A. Bigalow – NO

VOTE FOR DEMS WITH REPUBLICAN CHALLENGERS

Can you feel the Corporate Democrats squeezing you by the balls with their twisted, lesser of two-evils grip?

Endorsing with most desperation!

WHAT ARE YOU ACTUALLY VOTING FOR? SEE: bit.ly/TwoEvils2018

(CASE SENSITIVE)

LOS ANGELES

MEASURE B : YES (NICE!)

MEASURE E : YES

MEASURE EE : YES Most deja-vu measure

MEASURE W : YES

US HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

DISTRICT 34 ✓ Kenneth Mejia Actually human candidate alert!

DISTRICT 25 ✓ Katie Hill

DISTRICT 39 ✓ Gil Cisneros

STATE SENATE

DISTRICT 24 ✓ Peter Choi

DISTRICT 22 ✓ Mike Eng

Swing left shout outs!

STATE ASSEMBLY

DISTRICT 53 ✓ Miguel Santiago

DISTRICT 54 NO ENDORSEMENT (YIKES!)

DISTRICT 63 ✓ Maria D. Estrada

DISTRICT 15 ✓ Jovanka Beckles Actually human candidate alert!

SHERIFF NO ENDORSEMENT (FTP:)

LA SUPERIOR COURT Life-Ruinners!

NO 4 ✓ A. Veronica Saucedo

NO 16 ✓ Patricia "Patti" Hunter

NO 60 ✓ Holly L. Hancock

NO 113 ✓ Javier Perez

ALSO INSIDE: RENT CONTROL, NOCTURNAL METAPHORS, PROGRESSIVE* (*SOME EXCLUSIONS APPLY) CENTRISM™, AND VOTING ON TIME ITSELF.

STATEWIDE BALLOT INITIATIVES (1/2)

PROP 1 : YES

TJR is a bond skeptic (bonds are loans the government must pay back, i.e., they're tax-free interest for the rich instead of actually taxing the rich). But Prop 1 would provide $4 Billion in bonds for housing veterans. This would be a duh if the bonds would fund public housing but instead they fund subsidies to landlords and developers, so it gets a "lesser of two-evils" sure. Think about it: the investment wing of the giant financial firm Blackstone loans money to the government, so that the government can give that money to the real estate wing of Blackstone for housing a veteran, and then taxpayers will have to pay Blackstone for that original money, and it looks like Blackstone is getting paid... twice. Why not cut out the loan shark landlord and fund the projects? Because our politicians are still stuck in the quicksand of 1980s neoliberal faith in the "private market." Obvious jingoism singles out veterans as beneficiaries of policies that all Americans deserve (ex. VA socialized healthcare), but wanting the program to be universal isn't enough reason to stand in its way.

PROP 2 : YES

This ballot measure is about how we use the resources we are already getting (from the millionaire's tax ballot measure that won in 2004). If this measure is approved, we would use the fund not just for mental health services but for housing people with mental health needs. Hopefully the word "bond" makes you a bit weary and annoyed now, even as you will vote yes.

PROP 3 : NO

Public water projects should benefit the public, not fund infrastructure for Big Agriculture. Public water projects should have a mandate to conserve habitats, not appropriate conservation funding. Public water projects should have public oversight; this bill's "continuous appropriation" is a funding stream without an "off" button. The same Big Ag companies spending hundreds of thousands on the campaign will see a taxpayer-funded windfall in the millions should it pass. League of Women's Voters & Sierra Club are urging a "no" vote. Same!

Politicians are buyable and full of shit; TJR loves the ballot because we get to vote for the law.

PROP 4 : NO

Again, bonds. Again, resources for private companies. These ones are children's hospitals, which like, yeah I know, taking an IV out of a sick kid's arm, how awful, but taking State money to pay to expand and renovate hospital facilities is something hospitals should probably be doing with the insane amount of money they are charging insurance companies for a band-aid for one of these sick kids, so I'm pretty sure little Timmy will keep his IV.

PROP 5 : NO

When you sell your house in this market, you should have to pay the whole taxes on the next one, end of story. Prop 13 has starved California of tax dollars since 1978 by restricting property tax increases to 2% a year, heaping savings onto the wealthiest Californians. Thanks to amendments voters made on Prop 13 in the 1980s, homeowners over 55 and disabled people can already move to another less expensive home and take their stabilized tax bracket with them when they do. Now, Realtors Associations and Republicans want these homeowners to be able to take their tax bracket to a more expensive home, stealing more than $1 billion dollars from public schools. If this sounds like bullshit, it's because it is!

PROP 6 : NO

Yes, taxes on goods disproportionately affect the poor (parking tickets should be income based, obvi), and vice taxes aren't really a deterrent for addictions, but CA has not increased the gas tax since 1990. Plus, we already passed a ballot measure, so the money collected from the tax must be spent on infrastructure and public transit. Tax gas.

STATEWIDE BALLOT INITIATIVES (2/2)

PROP 7 : YES

You know how every year we have to turn out our clocks back to “save daylight,” in other words, lose more light at night? Well, now you can vote for all-year daylight saving! Note: your vote just makes a recommendation to the State legislature, and an actual change would require approval by the Federal government. Seems like a shakedown between night and morning people; TJR loves an 8pm sunset!

PROP 8 : YES

Requires dialysis clinics to refund money to patients paying over 115% of average treatment cost. Bonus: the measure was started by labor union SEIU, now in an uphill fight to organize CA's dialysis companies DaVita and Fresenius, which every year rake in $3.9 billion in profits from the 63,000 Californians who need dialysis to not die.

PROP 10 : HUGE YES

Name a law sexier than rent control. YOU CAN'T. Prop 10 legalizes the expansion of rent control by repealing a 1995 law that stands in rent control's way. Could you imagine your nasty republican uncle making a rule in 1995 that is—and not in a teen exaggeration way—still ruining people's lives? If you've seen 40% rent increases for working families and thought “there should be a law against that” well we can get one! If we pass Prop 10, we can fight to 1) expand rent control to single family homes, 2) expand rent control to LA buildings built after 1978 and SF buildings built after 1979, and more. Unfortunately rich uncles die hard b/c the largest real estate firm in the world with 12,000 homes in CA alone put $7 million into a caldron of $45 million from other trump-munching landlords & flippers to spew lies across every billboard and screen in the state. Read my not one, but two LA Times pieces for my more serious takes, or just believe the LA & SF Tenants Unions, Tenants Together, ACLU, Democratic Party, and Nurses AND Teachers AND Labor Unions, LA Times...

Politicians are buyable and full of shit; TJR loves the ballot because we get to vote for the law.

PROP 11 : NO

Congrats, you won Most Disingenuous Measure! This bill says it's about paying for EMTs to have active shooter training (yikes), mental health services (yay), and paying for their break times / meals (cool), BUT it's actually an attempt by private ambulance companies to sneak around a CA supreme court decision that ruled they couldn't require EMTs to remain on call during lunch. Hire more EMTs instead of squeezing the ones you have, you cheap bastards! (Also, the bill only guarantees 10 mental health visits, which seems—to this Jewish ex- New Yorker who has seen a therapist more than that and not been a first responder to a school shooting—like not much.)

PROP 12 : YES

Which is more space for a chicken: one square foot, or the amount required to “fully spread both wings without touching the side of an enclosure or other egg-laying hens.” Turns out this is the kind of shit you have to know to vote on a CA ballot proposition! TJR is not a vegetarian, but would like for animals we consume to live nice enough lives to be considered lives. Prop 12 would turn the purposely vague “fully spread” into the more enforceable “one foot” and make similar changes for cows and pigs, and is supported by the Humane Society. PETA says the rules are more permissive, but the rest of the “no's” are Pork Producers and Egg Farmers (plus the pro-cock-fighting “Humane Farming Association”) so the answer is probably “yes.”

STATEWIDE CANDIDATES

(1/3)

WASHINGTON PEOPLE

US SENATE: ✓ KEVIN de LÉON

Literally if a three-month old possum had a chance to beat Feinstein I would vote for it. Please god do the right thing and retire that respectability Zionist before I give myself rabies trying to find any random nocturnal creature who could get the job done. Hey, even the CA Democratic Party agrees with me!

SACRAMENTO PEOPLE

CALIFORNIA GOVERNER :

✓ GAVIN NEWSOM

Remember that viral photo about the fishery in Kuwait which was putting googly-eyes on their fish to make them seem fresher? What a perfect picture of Gavin Newsom's election strategy! Same corporate-approved moderate tinkering at the margins, but don't worry because his slogan is "for a change." Could be worse!

CALIF. LIEUTENANT GOVERNER :

✓ ED HERNANDEZ

This race is so chock full of Democratic Machine it's basically the Transformers. Barack Obama, Nancy Pelosi, and Kamela Harris have endorsed Eleni Kounalakis. Xavier Becerra and Kevin de León favor Ed Hernandez. Emily's List picked Kounalakis. Planned Parenthood, and the Teachers, Nurses, and Labor Unions picked Hernandez. It's like apples and... apples! Or like, buying an apple at Whole Foods and having an apple delivered by Amazon. Ok, maybe that's unfair because Kounalakis gave $4 million to her own campaign from her real estate business and Hernandez's top donation was $39,000 from his eye care clinic. Better one.. Or two? TWO.

Memorize their names and phone numbers bc the lobbyists already have!

The following is a list of people you are casting a vote for mostly because there is a Republican challenger in the race, and the fact that they have a candidate for governor, the gas tax repeal, and the property tax loophole all on the ballot means they will actually show up to vote. Drat!

SECRETARY OF STATE :

✓ ALEX PADILLA

ATTORNEY GENERAL:

✓ XAVIER BECERRA

TREASURER :

✓ FIONA MA

ATTORNEY GENERAL:

✓ XAVIER BECERRA

SUPERINTENDENT OF PUBLIC INSTRUCTION

✓ TONY THURMOND

The highest ranking official of California K-12 education should not be charter-school bro Marshall Tuck. Former Assemblyman Tony Thurmond recognizes that public schools deserve resources and that teacher pay is essential to student success.

STATEWIDE CANDIDATES

(2/3)

SACRAMENTO PEOPLE

INSURANCE COMMISSIONER :

✓ RICARDO LARA

Opponent Steve Poizner is trying to use “non-partisanship” as a cover for being Republican.

MEMBERS: STATE BOARD OF EQUALIZATION

You ever hear that song “Tax Man”? Well, that’s literally what’s playing in the offices of the State Board of Equalization all year: they administer CA taxes on stuff like sales and property for programs like schools, healthcare, and housing. Of course, the Board has been plagued since its founding by rampant corruption and misuse of funds: just last year, a board member spent $130,000 for on their office furniture, and it was discovered that 30 percent of employees were related to other staff members. Bonus: in 2004, the board determined that movie theater popcorn was not taxable, arguing that it was not prepared food if served at room temperature, which it reached by the time you ate it in your theater seat!

1ST DISTRICT: ✓ TOM HALLINAN

Tom Hallinan is actually pledging to dismantle the state board of equalization. Word!

2ND DISTRICT: ✓ MALIA COHEN

3RD DISTRICT: ✓ TONY VAZQUEZ

Pretty concerning that this Democratic nominee for administering our taxes is currently mired in a scandal over conflicted interest (shilling for construction contracts his wife in the school board would then approve) and failure to declare his income. But what are we going to do, vote Republican? Two-Evils trap!

4TH DISTRICT: ✓ MIKE SCHAEFER

Memorize their names and phone numbers bc the lobbyists already have!

CALIFORNIA COURT OF APPEALS & SUPREME COURT JUSTICES

The appointment of a belligerent, chipmunk-cheeked assaulter with the temperance of LA traffic, and the sole qualification of raw, racist entitlement—now “indelible in the hippocampus,” is “Do you, Senator?!?”—has again solidified that judicial appointments are as political as a candidate race and that objectivity has always been a right wing cover up. And I can’t think of a more poignant example of the failure of liberalism than the the LA Times telling us all to “just say yes” to every judge. The laziness! Again, the GOP is making endorsements based on party in the courts, so you should too.

Note: In the Supreme Court and the Court of Appeals, judges don’t compete against each other. They’re nominated by the Governor, then we can continue to confirm or can reject their $200K+ a year positions by voting “yes” or “no.”

SUPREME COURT

CAROL CORRIGAN: NO

Vote “no” for this one time Dem turned Republican who was appointed by Arnold Schwarzenegger. She has already served one 12 year term, has been rated among CA’s most conservative judges, dissented to CA’s affirmation of gay marriage, and it is time for her to sit on a bench at the park or something.

LEONDRA R. KRUGER: YES

Appointed by Jerry Brown, Kruger was a deputy Solicitor General for the Obama Administration, arguing cases in front of the Supreme Court. She has a decent judicial record (especially on labor laws) with some loud blemishes (ex. she ruled in favor of allowing the collection and warehousing of DNA of by anyone arrested on felony charges). But that reputation for moderation (aka, conservatism) might put her on the path to be the first black woman (she’s Jamaican and Jewish) in the highest office (if, you know, the racist, sexist constitutionalists ever die.)

STATEWIDE CANDIDATES

(3/3)

COURT OF APPEALS

DISTRICT 2, DIVISION 1:

VICTORIA CHANEY: NO

HELEN BENDIX: SURE

Note: All my “sure”s are inoffensive (as judges get) Dems, who you can decide to “yes” or abstain (if you want to tamp down the mandate).

DISTRICT 2, DIVISION 2:

ELWOOD LUI: NO

Jerry Brown appointed a Republican to look fair. All is fair in no-platforming the GOP.

VICTORIA CHAVEZ: NO

DISTRICT 2, DIVISION 3:

HALIM DHANIDINA: YES

CA’s first Muslim judge, fan of KPFK-FM Pacifica, who helped invalidate “lewd conduct” arrests of gay men in long beach by forcing police to admit they entrapped them.

ANNE H. EGERTON: SURE

LUIS A. LAVIN: SURE

DISTRICT 2, DIVISION 4:

THOMAS WILLHITE: NO

Get rid of Pete Wilson appointed then Schwarzenegger appointed Republican.

NORA M. MANELLA: SURE

Memorize their names and phone numbers bc the lobbyists already have!

DISTRICT 2, DIVISION 5:

LAMAR W. BAKER: YES

The youngest person ever appointed to the Court of Appeals, former associate counsel to Obama. Most info about him online is how much conservatives hate him.

DOROTHY C. KIM: SURE

CARL H. MOOR: SURE

DISTRICT 2, DIVISION 6:

ARTHUR GILBERT : SURE

“If you didn’t get enough of Justice Gilbert’s wry columns in Under Submission, you belong to a legion of the unfulfilled” is a sentence I’m pretty sure Gilbert wrote in the description of his second available-on-Amazon collection of opinion columns Under Submission Volume 2. See also: his blog, where he waxed poetic about having gone to the gym in boxer shorts, and enough stuff about Wittgenstein, doubt, and facts to get me slightly on board.

MARTIN J. TANGEMAN: SURE

DISTRICT 2, DIVISION 7:

GAIL R. FEUER: YES

Rare enthusiasm for Feuer’s prior legal career, spent holding corporations responsible for air pollution.

JOHN L. SEGAL: YES

Made headlines by forcing LA’s zoo to improve conditions for its Elephant.

DISTRICT 2, DIVISION 8:

TRISHA A. BIGALOW: NO

Bigalow’s Dad was appointed to a Superior Court by Ronald Reagan, she was appointed by Schwarzenegger. The line ends here.

LOS ANGELES BALLOT MEASURES

MEASURE B: YES

Paves a way for a LA Public Bank. LA has $46 billion in sitting various banks. It pays about $100 million in banking fees a year. Divesting these funds from for-profit institutions and absorbing the fees seems as good a reason to vote for B as the savings on future interest payments, and the (probably overblown, but nonetheless seductive) possibilities for civilian oversight and investment direction (ex. #NODAPL).

MEASURE E: YES

This measure is to synch up LA's local primary elections with the CA state calendar in the hopes of increasing voter turnout. If you feel like we already voted for this, we did! In 2015, with the truly annoying side effect of extending some of our rep's terms for a year. BUT the those idiots used "June" in the measure's wording, and not, you know, "let us always match." LMAO! Smacks head on desk

MEASURE EE: YES

This measure is to synch LAUSD Board of Education elections up with the CA state calendar. See above.

MEASURE W: YES

Honestly people shouldn't even be inhabiting this desert called Los Angeles in the midst of historic droughts on an increasingly warming planet. Establishing any sort of water filtration, rain capture, and pollution/contamination mitigation system (before the Water Wars) seems not like some woo-woo hippie pipe dream but like a plea for our survival.

LOS ANGELES CANDIDATES (1/3)

If your district isn't listed it's Dem v. GOP, do yr Two-Evils thing

WASHINGTON PEOPLE

US HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES DISTRICT 34

✔ KENNETH MEJIA

Few politicians get anything other than the Two-Evils strategic support, but Kenneth Mejia gets the full 90% (there's obviously something wrong with anyone who wants to be a politician so 100% is not available). Mejia is an active member of the LA Tenants Union and the Koreatown Neighborhood Council, and would be the first Green Party Congressperson EVER. Mejia is running on a now unheard of human rights (not corporate profits) platform, which should really be the standard Democratic line: single-payer healthcare, cancel student debt, resurrect public housing.

FYI there are NINE "Swing Left" candidates in close house races in California (CA07, CA10, CA21, CA24, CA25, CA39, CA45, CA48, CA49), including those around LA:

DISTRICT 25

✔ KATIE HILL

DISTRICT 39

✔ GIL CISNEROS

LOS ANGELES CANDIDATES (2/3)

SACRAMENTO PEOPLE STATE SENATE

DISTRICT 22: ✓ MIKE ENG

His opponent is a “Dem” whose donors include the landlord lobby, Monsanto, Anheuser Busch, and Chevron.

DISTRICT 24: ✓ PETER CHOI

Rent control. End for-profit prisons. Ban fracking. Free college. Cute platform! $11,703 in total donations vs. over $1 million to his opponent.

STATE ASSEMBLY

DISTRICT 53: ✓ MIGUEL SANTIAGO

We are voting against a “business climate” “Dem” who is attempting to stoke fears of increased crime.

DISTRICT 54: NO ENDORSEMENT

The incumbent Sydney Kamlager’s first bill fast-tracked the construction of the new Clippers stadium in Inglewood by limiting environmental oversight (Inglewood is not her district). She was also one of two Democrats who voted against a “Just Cause Eviction” in support of kicking people out of their homes for no reason. Would obvi say to vote for the opposition, but Tepring Michelle Piquado is running for “public safety” and her husband is a cop.

DISTRICT 63: ✓ MARIA D. ESTRADA

We are voting against business Dem and Assembly Speaker Anthony Rendon who blocked CA’s single-payer bill from going to the State Senate, but is now walking back his initial distaste, after healthcare advocates circulated a petition to have him recalled.

DISTRICT 15: ✓ JOVANKA BECKLES

Democratic party politics in a microcosm! Beckles is a Panamanian immigrant, member of the Richmond Progressive Alliance and the DSA, and a former Richmond city council member. She helped pass the first rent-control measure in California in three decades, raise the minimum wage to $15, tax Chevron’s oil operations, and increase police oversight (while reducing gun violence; it can be done, duh). Her opponent is Buffy Wicks, Hillary Clinton’s former California campaign director, AKA “Buffy the Bernie Slayer,” who has never held an office but wants to win on the strength of her WhiteLadyTM Progressive* (*Some Exclusions Apply) CentrismTM.

OTHER LA CANDIDATES

COUNTY ASSESSOR: ✓ JEFFREY PRANG

The Assessor decides the value properties, so they can be accurately taxed. (In 2012, the guy accepted bribes to round way the fuck down and defraud Angelenos of tons of money). Hateful nod of respect to John “Lower Taxes” Loew, who legally changed his name so it could appear on the ballot as such!

SHERIFF: NO ENDORSEMENT FTP:)

Voters don’t elect the chief of LAPD (which, I must remind you, leads the nation in murdering civilians, gets 54% of LA’s budget a year, and arrests a homeless person 1 out of every 6 times they arrest anyone). But we do elect the Sheriff, who runs county jails, handles evictions and other court “enforcements,” and polices LA’s unincorporated areas. Long-time LA Sheriff Lee Baca was just sentenced to three years for leading a conspiracy to obstruct an FBI investigation into abuses in the jails he was tasked of overseeing. Jim McDonnell is running for re-election with the support of the Police Chief Association & Chamber of Commerce (gag me). LATimes endorsed him even though two people died in his jails in two days and he has promised to work more closely with ICE. Ex-lieutenant Alex Villanueva got a Democratic Party endorsement for using buzzwords like “cleaning the corruption swamp” and “stop warehousing the mentally ill,” but he also wants to add 3,000 cops and thinks body cameras are “niceties not necessities.”

LOS ANGELES CANDIDATES (3/3)

LOS ANGELES SUPERIOR COURT JUDGES

NO. 4: ✓ A. VERÓNICA SAUCEDA

Signs of life.

NO. 16: ✓ PATRICIA “PATTI” HUNTER

Her opponent, Sydne Jane Michel, is married to an attorney for the National Rifle Association and endorsed by Firearms enthusiasts.

NO. 60: ✓ HOLLY L. HANCOCK

Hancock was a public defender, but you’ll see “attorney-at-law” under her name on the ballot as legend has it voters chose prosecution over defense (ugh). More judges from defense, please!!!

NO. 113: ✓ JAVIER PEREZ

Perez is the most amenable to alternative sentencing. Fun note: this race is made of losers from previous races!

These people are life-ruiners, mostly prosecutors, whose job it will be to legitimize and perpetuate the use of cages as punishment.

Remember: “lesser of...” Endorsements are based on their showing some signs of life, AKA awareness of racism inherent in courts and/or criminalization of poverty and/or will for alternative sentencing.

FURTHER RESOURCES

VOTE BY MAIL

Request a vote by mail ballot by October 30th! Find your County Elections Office for your CA resources for early voting and vote by mail:

Call (800) 345-VOTE

Or: www.sos.ca.gov/elections/voting-resources/county-elections-offices/

FIND YOUR POLLING PLACE

CA: www.sos.ca.gov/elections/polling-place/

LA: lavote.net/locator

GET A PERSONALIZED BALLOT

including League of Women Voters judicial candidate Q&As at votersedge.org

OTHER ENDORSEMENT GUIDES

(AKA don’t you wish yr endorsement guide was hot like me?)

- League of Women Voters Ballot Endorsements
- DUH \(Demand Universal Healthcare\)
- Candidates on the Bernie Bloc.
- DSA Endorsements
- Pissed off SF voter guide

This “Judge Voter Guide” is authored by a conservative who hates “judicial activists,” which is a code for “loves Republican judges.” If they say it’s up, it’s probably down.

WHO TF IS TR?

Tracy Jeanne Rosenthal is a writer, and an idealist, skeptic, and freak. She is a co-founder of the LA Tenants Union. She thinks you should vote, and vote according to the principle of Lesser of Two Evils. With literally any/all the other days of the year, she thinks you should join an autonomous, abolitionist, anti-capitalist, and/or tenants movement, where you are certainly more wanted and definitely more needed. Find her online @Two_Evils or @Two_Evils where she will personally consult you on your ballot.

GRAPHIC DESIGN BY

Jacob Halpern